MADRID, January 25.

THE King being determined to carry on the War with Vigour againſt the Engliſh, the Court is extremely buſy in concerting proper Meaſures for that Purpoſe. His Majeſty has appointed the Marquis de Sarra Commander in Chief of the Army which is to be formed in Caſtile, which will conſiſt of 25,000 Men, and has alſo conferred on him the Command of all the other ſeparate Corps, one of which will aſſemble in Eſtramadura, another in Galicia, a third in Andaluſia, and the fourth in the Neighbourhood of Gibraltar, which is to conſiſt of 7000 Men. There are 12 Lieutenant Generals, and 18 Major Generals, appointed to make the Campaign, and to be ready before the firſt of March.

Our Naval Preparations are carried on with no leſs Vigour. We have 14 Ships of the Line at Cadiz, 11 at Carthagena, and 8 at Ferrol, all ready to put to Sea. Several private People have aſſociated themſelves, in order to fit out a great Number of Privateers; and it is aſſured that the King, by Way of Encouragement to them, will give up the Share of the Prizes to which he is entitled, being one Fifth. It is ſaid that the Principality of Biſcay will ſend to Sea 40 Privateers in a very ſhort Time.

Legborn, Jan. 29. Our Government has given Leave to ſupply the Engliſh with 3000 Oxen ſalted down, and as many Tons of Biſcuit, for the Uſe of the Garriſon of Gibraltar, which is ſaid to be in great Want of Proviſions.

Peterſbourg, Jan. 24. Count Hordt, a Swediſh Nobleman, in the Service of Pruſſia, who was made Priſoner about three Years ſince by the Ruſſian Troops, and cloſely confined ever ſince, is not only ſet at Liberty, but had the Honour to dine, on New Year's Day, at the Table of the Emperor, who, on that Occaſion, preſented him with a rich Sword.

Hague, February 17. We have Variety of Reports here. Some Letters tell us, that Pruſſian Contractors, have bought up, for ready Money, the Ruſſian Magazines in Poland, which has greatly ſunk the Price of Grain at Breſlau: That 40,000 Ruſſians are to be taken into the Pay of Great-Britain: That the Recruits raiſed in the Principality of Anhalt Zerbſt, have been ſent back: That a large Train of Artillery has been ſent from Berlin to Silefia: And that Prince Henry has reinforced General Platen, who was advancing upon the Auſtrians and the Troops of the Empire.

Letters from the North make mention of an Alliance between Great-Britain, Denmark and Pruſſia; purſuant to which the King of Denmark is to ſend 12,000 Men to the Army of Prince Henry in Saxony, and to fit out a numerous Squadron to cruiſe in the Baltick.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

Magdebourg, Feb. 12. The Ruſſian Priſoners, to the Number of 300 Men, and 25 Officers, ſet out from hence, 3 Days ago, for Stettin; and Orders are given to provide them with all Neceſſaries on the Road.

Hamburgh, Feb. 12. The Prince Royal of Pruſſia is expected the 14th Inſt. at Berlin from Magdebourg, in his Way to join the King of Pruſſia at Breſlau, as his Royal Highneſs is to make this next Campaign.

Count de Hordt, and General Werner, two Pruſſian Generals, Priſoners at Peterſbourg, releaſed by the Emperor, are upon the Road on their Return to Berlin from Peterſbourg.

All the young Pruſſian Cadets, which the Ruſſians carried off from Berlin, when they made themſelves Maſters of that Capital, are expected back from Konigſberg.

We have received Intelligence that all Hoſtilities have ceaſed ſince the 1ſt Inſtant, between the Ruſſians and Pruſſians. [Thus far Gazette.]

Berlin, Feb. 12. It is ſaid that a Convention is already agreed on, purſuant to which his Imperial Majeſty of Ruſſia will deliver up to the King all the Countries which the Ruſſians have conquered, in Conſideration of a large Sum of Money, and on Condition that his Pruſſian Majeſty will grant the Ruſſians a free Paſſage thro' his Dominions, either to the Dutchy of Holſtein (in Caſe the Negotiation reſpecting that Dutchy ſhould not be brought to the happy Iſſue which the Courts of Peterſbourg and Copenhagen hope for) or whatever elſe the Circumſtances of Affairs may require.

Magdebourg, Feb. 13. A Treaty is ſaid to be on the Carpet between the Courts of London, Peterſbourg, and Berlin, and that the Miniſters at thoſe Places have each wrote to their reſpective Courts, for full Powers and Inſtructions on that Head.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

Hamburgh, Feb. 16. We are pretty certainly informed here, that notwithſtanding there is as yet no Agreement ſigned for a Ceſſation of Arms between the Pruſſians and Ruſſians, that Orders have, however, been ſent, on the Part of both Courts, to ceaſe committing of Hoſtilities in Pomerania; and that all the Ruſſian Priſoners of War, which were in the Hands of the Pruſſians, are actually on their March towards Stargard: Nor is there any Exchange to be made, the Ruſſians having promiſed to ſet likewiſe at Liberty all the Pruſſian Priſoners, which greatly exceed thoſe of the Ruſſians; the latter amounting in Number but to between 3 and 4000 Men, and thoſe of the Pruſſians to near 8000.

Hague, Feb. 26. We hear from Paris, that Marſhal Broglio, and his Brother the Count, have been baniſhed to their Eſtates in the Country; and that the former is deprived, at the ſame Time, of his Command in Alſace; and the latter of the Government of Caſſel. It was not yet certain, to whom the Command of the French Forces in Germany would be given. [Thus far Gazette.]

Naples, Jan. 26. Without a Breach of Neutrality we may poſſibly be obliged to furniſh Spain with ſome Troops. Some Circumſtances make us judge ſo, and the Swiſs Regiment of Tſchoudi is ordered to be ready to embark at Auguſta in Sicily. It is alſo ſaid, that the 12,000 Swiſs, which Spain has taken into Pay, will march immediately through France.

Peterſbourg, Jan. 30. Laſt Wedneſday the Czar went to Mr. Keith's Houſe, the Engliſh Miniſter, and ſtaid with him Half an Hour. Laſt Night Mr. Keith ſupped at the Emperor's Table. This Night his Imperial Majeſty ſups with Mr. Keith.

Berlin, Feb. 12. Lieut. Gen. Czernichef hath paſſed the Oder under Krappitz with the 20,000 Ruſſians under his Command, directing his march towards Poſen. The Pruſſian Troops have Orders not to give them the leaſt Moleſtation. Five Ruſſian Regiments, one of which is the Cuiraſſier Guards, are marching back to Ruſſia.

Amſterdam, Feb. 16. The Anſwer of his Britannic Majeſty to the Remonſtrances made by our Eaſt-India Company, in Relation to the Affairs of Bengal, has been univerſally received here with the utmoſt Satisfaction; as it diſcovers thoſe Sentiments of Equity and Goodneſs, that ſo eminently adorn that excellent Prince. We ſay, univerſally; for we can ſcarcely admit as Exceptions to the general Suffrage, the Clamours of one or two hot headed Men, whom an unhappy Spirit of Faction renders blind to the true Intereſts of this Republic.

Hague, Feb. 22. Letters from Berlin of the 9th adviſe, that the Detachments poſted in the Neighbourhood of that City, to cover it from any ſudden Attack of the Ruſſian light Troops, had received Orders to march to Saxony, to join Prince Henry's Army. This Circumſtance, added to the News received here, that five Ruſſian Regiments, part of General Romanzoff's Army, were marching to Peterſbourg, leaves no Room to doubt that a proviſional Accommodation is concluded between the new Czar and the King of Pruſſia.

LONDON, February 23.

Letters from Madrid adviſe, that the Catholic King was augmenting his Cavalry with 5000 Men; that the Troops in Catalonia were marching to the Weſtward; and that two large Trains of Artillery were preparing at Barcelona and Seville.

It is ſaid that his Catholic Majeſty is going to take 30 or 40000 Germans into his Pay, which are to replace an equal Number of French that are to be called home from Germany, in order to form a Camp near Dunkirk.

Letters from Dantzick of the 24th paſt, which was the King of Pruſſia's Birth Day, ſay, that the chief Officers of the Ruſſians in Pomerania gave Orders to the Inhabitants to ſolemnize that Day, and ordered Oil and Candles to be given them gratis for Illuminations.

From Parma we have Advice, that they have begun to raiſe Men in that Dutchy for the King of Spain's Service, and that 400 Dragoons were gone to the Confines of the State of Genoa, from whence they were to eſcort ſeveral Millions of Piaſters ſent thither by the Court of Madrid, Part of which is deſtined for the Infant Don Philip.

The new Emperor of Ruſſia has ordered all the Frenchmen, that were Domeſtics to the late Empreſs, to be diſcharged, and has given them Leave to return home to their native Country.

They write from Hamburgh of the 9th Inſtant, that Orders had been publiſhed in the Farther Pomerania, in the German and Ruſſian Tongues, by the Ruſſian General Berg, that the Inhabitants of that Country ſhould not any more be moleſted, and all the Forage and Proviſions that ſhould be brought to the Army, ſhould be paid for in ready Money.

It is pretty obſervable, that the Court of Vienna goes into Mourning only for three Weeks for the Death of their valuable Friend the Empreſs of Ruſſia; and that of Sweden, who had not by many Degrees the ſame Obligation to her, puts on the ſable Pomp for as many Months.

The Corſican Malecontents have been ſo diligent in augmenting their naval Forces, that the Number of their Veſſels amounts already to Seventeen.

Four Hundred Men are ordered to be ſent to reinforce the Garriſon of Senegal, and 200 to Goree.

Lord George Lenox is made Aid de Camp to the King, and raiſed to the Rank of Colonel.

We are aſſured, that a Treaty is nearly concluded between the King of Pruſſia and the Emperor of Ruſſia.

Prince George of Holſtein-Gottorp, formerly Lieutenant-General of the Armies of the King of Pruſſia, has been declared Governor of the States which the Emperor of Ruſſia poſſeſſes in Germany.

All the Letters from Peterſbourg are full of Commendations of the new Czar, who, like another Titus, they ſay, lets not a Day paſs without ſome diſtinguiſhed Mark of his Benevolence.

There is an Account from Hanover of the Enemies having attacked and pillaged one of the Poſts of the Allies at Saltzderhelden.

They write from Paris, of the 8th Inſtant, that they have compleated the Batteries at the Iſle of Aix, for keeping off the Engliſh Ships from that Iſland.

The King of Pruſſia has given Orders to his Officers, that all the Contributions that have been raiſed in the Dominions of the Reigning Duke of Anhalt-Zerbſt, Brother to the preſent Empreſs of Ruſſia, ſhould be reſtored.

Private Letters from Peterſbourg ſay, that the Emperor Peter III. in Imitation of his glorious Grandfather, admits all the Ruſſian Nobility freely to his Preſence.

There are ſeveral more Tranſports ordered to be taken into his Majeſty's Service, and to be fitted with the utmoſt Expedition.

It is ſaid that Admiral Saunders has wrote for a Reinforcement of eight Ships of the Line, three Fire-ſhips, and four Bomb-ketches; which are accordingly ordered to ſail as ſoon as poſſible.

On Monday Chriſtopher Bath, Eſq; Commiſſary-General at Belleiſle, ſet out for Portſmouth, to embark for that Iſland. It is ſaid he is to ſend home all the Stores, &c. from thence, and to ſee the Troops there embarked for Liſbon; that the Fortifications of Belleiſle are entirely demoliſhed, and that the Iſland will be immediately evacuated.

Yeſterday Morning arrived a Meſſenger from Peterſbourg, ſince which it is confidently reported, that the Czar had made a public Declaration of having ordered his Troops to ceaſe from Hoſtilities, and ſeparate from the Auſtrians.

Letters from Hamburgh of the 12th Inſtant import, that they had Advice by private Letters from Peterſbourg, that the Coronation of the new Emperor was appointed to be at Moſcow the 8th of May; that eighteen Regiments of Ruſſian Troops had received Orders to march into Holſtein; and that the late Empreſs had laid up thirty Millions of Rubles, with which ſhe deſigned to build Churches.

Prince George of Holſtein Gottorp is declared and appointed, by the new Emperor of Ruſſia, Generaliſſimo over all his Land Forces.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, February 23.

"We daily expect his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, the Prince of Mecklenburgh, Lord Anſon, &c. to ſee our Embarkation take Place. Every Thing here wears the Aſpect of a vigorous War. As ſoon as the Tranſports arrive here from the Downs, our Troops will embark. Our Artificers are indefatigable. We are told another Fleet is fitting out for Channel Service, and we are here in great Hurry making Proviſion accordingly."

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, February 9.

"Our Corps of Artillery is augmented with three Battalions of 1000 Men each; and a large Train is going from hence to Saxony and Sileſia. It is pretty certain that we have nothing further to fear from the Ruſſians.

"Agreeable to the Suſpenſion of Hoſtilities for three Months between our Troops and the Swedes, the Peace is to ſeparate the two Armies, and Demmin is to be without a Garriſon.

"We ſoon expect ſome intereſting News from the Side of Thuringia, where our Troops, as well as thoſe of the Army of the Empire, are in Motion.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, February 12.

"It is ſaid, that the Count de Maillebois, Son of the Marſhal juſt deceaſed, Lieut. General of the King's Armies, and whoſe military Talents are ſo well known, is to go to Spain to take the Command of the Troops of his Catholic Majeſty deſtined to act againſt the Engliſh."

A Letter from Genoa has theſe Words: There cannot be a Situation more critical than ours. Spain has demanded two of our Ports till there is a Peace; and if we grant them, we ſhall be ſure of drawing upon us the Wrath of the Engliſh.

They write from Naples of the 9th Inſt. that Orders were juſt given for a numerous Body of Troops to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march by the End of next Month.

The firſt generous Act of the preſent Czar was to declare in Council, that all the Nobility, Gentry, &c. of Ruſſia, ſhould henceforth enjoy the ſame Liberties and Privileges with thoſe of other Nations; whereas they uſed to be rather in a State of Slavery.

Letters from Hamburgh tell us, that the States of Cleves have agreed with the Intendant of the French Army about the Times of furniſhing the four Parts of the Tax impoſed on them; which Tax amounts to 2,650,000 Livres Tournois, for the Troops of his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty; 130,000 Livres as a Douceur for the Generals of thoſe Troops; 600,000 Rations; and all the Fewel which the French Garriſons in that Dutchy ſhall ſtand in Need of.

The King of Sardinia has given Leave to the Engliſh to purchaſe 400,000 Sacks of Meal in the Iſland of Sardinia. His Sardinian Majeſty has now on Foot 20,000 Men, and can ſoon recruit them with 10,000 more; beſides, there is a Treaty ſubſiſting between the King and the Swiſs Cantons, by Virtue of which they are to ſupply him with 10,000 Men within 40 Days whenever he is attacked.

Feb. 27. By a private Letter from Peterſbourg we are aſſured, that the new Emperor of Ruſſia has done Mr. Keith, the Britiſh Miniſter, the great Honour to ſup with him at his Houſe; and that at the moſt gracious Requeſt of his Royal and Imperial Gueſt, Mr. Keith had invited ſeveral Engliſh Merchants to partake of the Entertainment.

The Auſtrian and French Miniſters at Peterſbourg have been informed by the Ruſſian Miniſtry, that Orders had been diſpatched to the Commanders in Chief of the Ruſſian Troops to act no farther againſt the King of Pruſſia.

According to Letters from Peterſbourg of the 28th ult. the Emperor of Ruſſia had given the King of Pruſſia and his Allies the greateſt Aſſurance, that he was ready and willing to aſſiſt them againſt all their Enemies; and being determined to make his Subjects a free People, had given the Nobility and others Liberty to travel where-ever they pleaſed, or to ſell or purchaſe any Eſtate without Controul; and alſo to deſtroy all Vaſſalage the Ruſſian Lords have had over their Tenants and Slaves, being determined to promote the Happineſs of his Subjects, as much as Peter the Great did to reform them.

The great Alteration in the Face of Affairs ſince the Death of the Empreſs of Ruſſia, has induced the Empreſs Queen to enter upon a Negotiation for a ſeparate Peace with the King of Pruſſia; and ſeveral Couriers (according to the Accounts by the laſt Holland Mail) had already paſſed between the two Courts; but if the Treaty ſhould break off fruitleſsly, it was ſaid his Pruſſian Majeſty would immediately lay Siege to Schweidnitz, being aſſured of no farther Moleſtation from the Ruſſians.

They write from Vienna of the 6th Inſtant, that they were informed, that the new Emperor of Ruſſia would obſerve a ſtrict Neutrality in the preſent War; and that he had diſpatched Orders to his Armies in Pruſſia, Pomerania, and Sileſia, to ceaſe all Hoſtilities againſt the Pruſſians.

Letters from Great Poland of the 9th Inſtant import, that the Ruſſian Troops under Gen. Czernichef repaſſed the Oder the 7th at Koben, and marched into Poland.

Some Letters by Yeſterday's Dutch Mail ſay, that there is great Likelihood of a Peace in Germany, and large Orders have been ſent to purchaſe our Stocks; and when they were here at 78, they were at Holland 84 one Half, when the Letters came away.

Some Letters from Saxony of the 7th ult. ſpeak confidently, that the King of Poland was expected at Dreſden, from Warſaw, the middle of the next Month, in order to make his Peace with the King of Pruſſia.

We are informed by ſome Engliſh Officers that came over by the laſt Packet, and left the Army in Germany on the 12th Inſt. that the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick was then preparing to go upon a ſecret Expedition.

Two Gentlemen, who came over by the laſt Packet from Germany, report, that the Britiſh Troops in the Army there were in very great Spirits, on Advice of the Reconciliation of the Ruſſians and Pruſſians.

Letters from Madrid poſitively aſſert, that Troops were marching towards Portugal and Gibraltar. Theſe Letters add, that the Money with which Spain ſupplies France, is a very conſiderable Sum.

Letters from Paris adviſe, that the Toulon Squadron, conſiſting of 10 Ships of the Line, 15 Frigates, and 3 Chebecs, will join a Spaniſh Fleet, and lay Siege to Gibraltar by Sea, while an Army blocks it up by Land. Theſe Letters add, that by ſome it was pretended that the French Fleet would attempt a Deſcent in Scotland; whilſt a Spaniſh Fleet attempted to land Forces in Ireland; and if either ſucceeded, the Pretender would make his Appearance, agreeably to a ſecret Article of the Bourbon Treaty.

According to ſome Letters from Spain and Portugal, the Spaniards will have an Army of 50,000 Men ready to act offenſively, on the Frontiers of Portugal, by the firſt Day of March.

It is ſaid that the Troops that are going over to the Aſſiſtance of his Portugueſe Majeſty, at his Requeſt, are to be double officered, in order to inſtruct his Troops in the military Diſcipline, which has been for a long Time neglected in Portugal.

We hear that ſeveral of his Majeſty's Ships now in the Eaſt-Indies, will be employed in an Attack on ſome of the Spaniſh Settlements in the South-Seas, and that the Command of that Expedition will be given to Colonel Draper.

Laſt Monday his Majeſty's Frigate Argo ſailed Expreſs from Plymouth for the Eaſt-Indies. Colonel Draper goes Paſſenger on board her.

An Officer going on the Expedition writes, that the Soldiers have all been ſupplied with Linen Waiſtcoats and Drawers, by which it is imagined they are going to a warm Climate.

We hear from Portſmouth, that the Preparations for the ſailing of the Expedition are carrying on with a Celerity ſcarce known before, inſomuch that the Troops, who embarked Yeſterday for that Service, ſtood Breaſt high in the Water, that no Delay might be occaſioned in tranſporting them from the Shore.

Among the Land Forces in this Armament, there is a complete Regiment of French Priſoners, who voluntarily entered into the Engliſh Service, and are cloathed in the Uniform of their own Country, which is white turned up with blue. They are to be incorporated into the other Regiments.

A very conſiderable Quantity of Ammunition and Arms was ſhipped Yeſterday at the Tower, which are to be ſent to Portugal.

March 2. Twenty Thouſand Stand of Arms, and above 100 Pieces of Ordnance, from 24 to 6 Pounders, are ſhipping in the River for Liſbon; together with a great Quantity of Ammunition and Proviſions.

By Letters from Peterſbourg, ſince the Demiſe of the Czarina, we are told, that there has been found out a Copy of a Treaty which was on the Carpet between that Court and thoſe of Verſailles and Vienna, tending to ſet aſide the preſent Emperor. The ſame Letters mention that the Terms of Reconciliation between the Ruſſians and Pruſſians were left to the Mediation of the Court of Great-Britain.

Extract of a Letter from Hamburgh, Feb. 16.

"The Conſequences of the Death of the Empreſs Elizabeth, are now viſible in the important Changes that already appear in the Syſtem of the Court of Peterſbourg. This Syſtem has a pacific Aſpect towards the King of Pruſſia, and will probably give a new Turn to the Affairs of Europe in general. The Negotiations between that Monarch and the new Emperor are far advanced, and their Effects are viſible in the Behaviour of the Armies of thoſe two Monarchs, which behold each other with a placid Eye, and ſeem to have laid aſide as it were, by a tacit Convention, the Animoſity and Vengeance that lately animated all their Proceedings. The Meſſenger ſent by his Pruſſian Majeſty to congratulate Peter the Third, upon his Acceſſion to the Imperial Throne, was received with Diſtinction."

Holſtein and Ruſſia are now ſubject to one Sovereign, like Great-Britain and Hanover. The King of Sweden is Uncle to the Emperor of Ruſſia, and the Queen of Sweden is Siſter to the King of Pruſſia. The King of Denmark is of the ſame Family; and it is natural, as well as political, for thoſe auguſt Houſes to form a Family Compact; as well as the Bourbon Princes.

Prince George, of Holſtein Gottorp, and Couſin to the Emperor of Ruſſia, who has appointed him Generaliſſimo of all his Land Forces, which conſiſt of 400,000 Men, was brought up in the Pruſſian Service, and is a great Favourite with his Pruſſian Majeſty.

Thurſday laſt the grand Fleet, after being joined by the Ships in the Downs, ſailed from Spithead with a fair Wind at N. N. E. one of the greateſt Fleets that ever ſailed from England, which induced a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction to go to Portſmouth to ſee it.

It is now ſaid that the Expedition Fleet is going againſt Ferrol, in order to demoliſh that Place, with the ſeveral Ships, &c. in the Harbour, and that from thence it is to proceed to Liſbon.

There now remains of Regular Troops in Great-Britain 21,500, Militia embodied 22,500, Regular Troops on the Iriſh Eſtabliſhment 13,000: In all 59,000; beſides the Militia of Ireland, which is forming.

By Letters from Ireland we are informed, that a Reſolution had been carried for holding Septennial Parliaments in that Kingdom; and that it was to be ſent over to England for Approbation.

March 13. The Number of Forces gone out in the Expedition Fleet, excluſive of Marines and Light Horſe, is 3000.

The King hath been pleaſed to give the Command of the 22d Regiment of Foot, vacant by the Death of General Whitmore, to Major General Gage, Colonel of the 80th Regiment.

The Sparrowhorſe and the Penham Privateers, belonging to Dunkirk, are both taken by the Eſſex Man of War, and ſent into Portſmouth.

The Renown Frigate has brought into Plymouth the Count de Hourville, and the Sango, two French Privateers, from Dunkirk; the former of 12 Guns, and the latter of 6.

Eight or ten Ships of War are ordered to be forthwith got ready, to take under their Convoy 40 Sail of Tranſports, with Engineers, Land Forces, Stores, &c. for Gibraltar. The ſaid Ships of War, after ſeeing the Convoy ſafe in that Port, are to join the Fleet in the Mediterranean under the Command of Admiral Saunders. The Tranſports are afterwards to ſail to New-York or Carolina, to receive Inſtructions from General Amherſt, or the Commander in Chief upon that Station, with reſpect to the particular Services they are to be employed in.

A large Convoy of Tranſports is likewiſe getting ready with great Expedition for Jamaica, with ſome Troops, and a great Quantity of all Kinds of Stores on board, to go out under the Care of a Squadron of Men of War, which are to join the Fleet lately commanded by Admiral Holmes: His Succeſſor in Command, we are told, will go with this Squadron, but who that Succeſſor is, we have not as yet learned.

BOSTON, May 6.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, March 16, 1762.

"The 11th Inſt. arrived in this River the Portland Man of War, with Lord Tyrawley, his Secretary Colonel Rainsford, four Aid de Camps, and Col. O'Harra, Quarter Maſter General; theſe are Forerunners of the Troops expected here.—— Theſe Gentlemen, as alſo Yeſterday's Poſt, brought poſitive Advice, that the King of Pruſſia had concluded a Treaty with the Emperor of Ruſſia, who has accepted a Subſidy from England; and it is ſaid that 35,000 of his Men are to remain in Germany, to aſſiſt the King of Pruſſia: They are in the greateſt Confuſion at Vienna; and it is further ſaid, that the King of Pruſſia was about concluding a ſeparate Peace with the King of Poland.

"The Britannia, Captain Olive, a Letter of Marque belonging to Briſtol, arrived the 3d Inſt. She took a Spaniſh Privateer of 14 Carriage Guns, 12 Swivels, and 113 Men, called the N. S. de la Mar, Capt. Manuel de Pando; ſhe had 13 Men killed and wounded, of which Capt. Olive was one, who is in a fair Way of Recovery. The Privateer only arrived Yeſterday, and has brought with her another Spaniſh Veſſel, loaded with Barley."

Monday laſt a Detachment of 500 Men, belonging to Colonel Hoar's Regiment, embarked from Caſtle William on board a Number of Tranſports, and ſailed for Nova-Scotia; the Remainder of the ſaid Regiment will ſoon proceed for the ſame Place: The two other Provincial Regiments are deſtined to the Weſtward, one of them commanded by Col. Saltonſtall, the other by Col. Ingerſol. The whole of his Majeſty's Requiſition for the Provincial Service was completed by the 1ſt of May; and his Excellency's Orders were immediately iſſued for inliſting the Recruits for his Majeſty's regular Regiments in North-America, agreeable to his Majeſty's Requiſition for that Purpoſe.

The Recruiting Officers of Major Gorham's Rangers are alſo raiſing a Number of Recruits in this Province to complete their Companies.

By Captain Lander, who arrived Yeſterday at Salem in 27 Days from Martinico, we have Advice, that a Number of Britiſh Troops were embarking on board Tranſports there, deſtined for ſome Expedition: Admiral Rodney with his Fleet were at Antigua: Col. Murray, and ſeveral other Officers died there lately.—A Number of French Privateers were cruiſing between Martinico and the Grenada's, and had taken 7 or 8 Veſſels a few Days before Captain Lander ſailed.

Extract of a Letter from Liverpool, Feb. 28, 1762.

"By the Death of the Empress of Russia, there is a Prospect of the King of Prussia's being able to make up Matters with the Russians, by whom he has suffered greatly.—We hope he will, and that it may be followed by a Peace in Germany, which will enable us to make the Bourbon Family repent bitterly of their late Compact; and, by fresh Conquests, put your Continent into the most flourishing Condition.——Stocks have already risen from this Prospect Five per Cent."

By Captain M'Clelland, from Faro, there is Advice, that the Portuguese expected every Hour to hear of War being declared against them by the Spaniards: That they were in great Confusion there, and pressing every Body into the Service, able to carry a Musket: That 2000 Men had marched from Faro for the Frontiers, while he was at that Place; and that there was a Peace concluded between the Prussians and Russians.

Captain Burrows, from Madeira, informs us, that the Spanish Ship, sent in there by the Richmond Frigate (formerly mentioned) in her Way to Barbados, had 50,000 Dollars on board, and a valuable Cargo besides, of Logwood and Skins.
